BOSCH
Invented for life

Internship with Bosch

There are many benefits to an internship with us – above all, for you. Whatever your course requirements might be, we have an internship to fill the bill – from preliminary and basic through compulsory internships to entire semesters on the job. Naturally, you're also welcome to intern with us on a voluntary basis. In that case, you can choose the field and duration of your training – just as long as it's a good match with your studies and with us. At Bosch, many doors can be open for you.

What's in it for you:

Work side by side with proven specialists.

Be entrusted with your own area of responsibility within the scope of projects or in day-to-day business.

Get a taste of being part of a global team. At Bosch, you won't just work with people in the same building but also with international colleagues via virtual networks.

Have the chance to network with experts and other interns

What you have to offer:

You have acquired a sound grasp of your chosen field and approach the future with curiosity and far-sighted plans. You also show:

- Dedication and flexibility
- Team spirit and social skills
- Cosmopolitan outlook
- Good English; Danish or other Scandinavian language is an advantage

How to apply:

Please send us a short motivation letter as to why you want to become an intern at Bosch and which area would be mostly interested in working with, together with a CV.

All information needs to be submitted via email to Nordic.Students@bosch.com

We look forward to hearing from you!
